ANNOUNCEMENTS.

I have decided to be a candidate for Mayor of the city of Abilene at the coming April election. If elected, I will serve the city to the best of my ability. C. H. LEBOLD.

I am a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace of the city of Abilene subject to the decision of the voters at the coming city election. JOHN P. QUINN.

I am a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace of the city of Abilene subject to the decision of the voters at the next city election. EDWIN R. COLLINS.

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable of the city of Abilene subject to the decision of the voters at the coming city election. R. A. BROWN.

EDITORS REFLECTOR: Gentlemen—Having been repeatedly solicited by the citizens of Abilene to become a candidate for Mayor of said city, after due deliberation I have decided to announce myself a candidate for said office. DAVID MATTESON.

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable of the City of Abilene, subject to the decision of the voters at the coming city election. WM. APPLEMAN.

By the request of many voters of the city of Abilene, I have consented to become a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace at the coming April election for city officers. Whiskey, beer and cigars will not be used to capture votes for my election. D. HUGGINS.

I am a candidate for the City Council from the Second Ward, subject to the decision of the voters of that ward at the polls. If I am elected I will do my best toward reducing expenses and the high tax rate. SIMON ROTHSCHILD.

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace for the city of Abilene, subject to the decision of the voters at the coming city election. R. N. SMITH.

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

I cannot sing the old songs As I have been requested: Whenever I have tried the thing I've always been arrested.

R. Tishner, of Enterprise, is preparing to move his drug stock to Washington Territory.

Dickinson county has seven cases of small pox on the docket. It is a good time to vaccinate.

Now is the time to perform the two first duties of every true citizen—clean up the yard and register.

The probate judge issued a marriage license to Jacob Jury and Susie Magson, both of Detroit. The prospective groom is 22 years of age and the bride 29.

The utmost care and judgment should be exercised in the selection of a school board this year. That body has an important duty to perform in selecting a successor to Prof. Jewett.

Will Shipley, a long-time citizen of Liberty township living north of Woodbine, died yesterday. The funeral services were held today in the school house, school being dismissed on that account.

The North Dickinson teachers' institute meets at Chapman on Saturday in the county high school building. A fine program including an address by Editor MacDonald, of Topeka, has been prepared and a large attendance is assured.

The city election will be with us in less than a month. Already the woods are full of candidates who are willing to offer themselves as living sacrifices on the altar of the municipality. Let none but the best men be chosen for any position.

Will L. Upshaw has sold out his interest in the Upshaw Furniture Co. to his father who is now conducting the establishment. Ralph Jones takes a position as bookkeeper. W. L. has not decided yet where he will locate or what line of business he will pursue.

Rev. W. H. Zimmerman concluded his second year's work as pastor of the M. E. church yesterday. The annual conference, which begins its session at Lawrence Wednesday, will probably return him, though there is nothing certain about it. Mr. Zimmerman's labors here have proved very successful and he has made many friends by his straightforward and conservative course.

The rendition of the cantata of Esther Monday and Tuesday evenings was a complete success. Large audiences greeted the players and those taking part acted their parts well. The Episcopal church netted a good sum from the entertainment.

As our announcement column shows, the REFLECTOR was not amiss in giving the rumor that Simon Rothschild proposed to run for councilman. He has had an abundance of business experience and will no doubt, if elected, strive to carry out the pledge which he makes over his signature.

We announce today the candidacy of Richard A. Brown for constable of the city at the approaching election. Mr. Brown has already served the people in this capacity long enough to make a good reputation for business-like and straight-forward conduct. He is also deputy sheriff, a fact which proves his familiarity with handling the criminal classes. He will undoubtedly receive an endorsement of his appreciated services.

The wide-awake firm of Wyandt Bros., proprietors of the Daylight, is among the first to come to the front with spring announcements. This firm has made an enviable reputation and won a large slice of the dry goods trade of the city by the excellence of their goods and the uniformly low prices at which they are sold. Their advertisements are always worth reading for they mean something.

JUSTICE'S BAR.

Doings of the District Court.

FRIDAY.
State vs. John Pratt: Accused of stealing oats. After trial, verdict of not guilty.

The Pontius case was finished last evening and the jury sent out. The evidence had gone to show that the flour and lard stolen from Crooks Bros.' store was found, six sacks of flour and one can of lard, on Pontius' premises and that he had on one occasion admitted his guilt. The jury, after being out until this afternoon, failed to agree and so reported.

The Reed case is on trial, Biting being for the state and E. R. Morse for defense. Thos. Reed is accused of stealing a horse from one Etherington in Willowdale township and rode it up to Solomon, where he tried to sell it. The attorneys are as we go to press making their final arguments.

The Johnsons, of Noble township, who had their trial last spring but were brought back on account of error were arraigned this morning and their trial set for March 6th.

Martin Thomas will be tried tomorrow. All of the members of the gang will have their trial separately.

SATURDAY.
State vs. Thos. Reed: Horse stealing, verdict of guilty.

Verdict vs. Haigler: Defendant discharged.

First National Bank, of Salina, vs. John Watts, et al: Judgment for plaintiff against Watts and Baxter for $1,892.72. Continued as to H. C. Smith.

B. R. Abbe vs D. S. Beemer et al: Judgment for plaintiff.

Same vs D. L. I. J. and F. O. Holter: Judgment for plaintiff for $486.60.

Keystone Manf'g Co vs Berry Bros Melle Co: Judgment for plaintiff for $1,463.35.

I. L. Shore vs Thurston: Judgment for plaintiff for $982 and costs.

MONDAY.
The appearance this morning of Mrs. Jones, wife No. 1, of the much-maligned prisoner arrested last fall, seemed to have a convincing effect upon his conscience. She arrived from Peoria, Ill., on the morning train and was accompanied by her little daughter, Jones' child. She was prepared to give the most conclusive evidence in the case and her husband quickly wilted. Upon being brought before the court he pleaded guilty of bigamy and will receive his sentence for the crime soon.

William and John George, accused of selling whisky in violation of the prohibitory law, also admitted their crime thus saving the county the expense of trial.

Martin Thomas, of the "Blalock gang," pleaded guilty to grand larceny before the evidence in his case was presented.

Hiram Johnson pleaded guilty to grand larceny and burglary.

The case against old man Johnson was dismissed on account of his feebleness and the probability that he was more the tool of his son than a leader in the affair.

This settlement of the cases is a fortunate one for the county which has already been to a great expense in the trials of the gang and is, too, a good one for the prisoners who will doubtless receive a lighter sentence than otherwise.

TUESDAY.
William George pleaded guilty to selling liquor and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and be imprisoned 30 days in county jail. He stands committed until paid.

Jim Hughes pleaded guilty to selling liquor as charged in first and second counts, nolle pros. in others. Sentenced to 30 days imprisonment and $100 fine on each count.

Alfred Bros vs T. F. Banta: Judgment for plaintiff for $511.

J. W. Dorman vs T. F. Banta: Judgment for $1,930 and costs.

First Nat'l Bank of Russell vs Kansas Harvester Co: Motion for judgment denied.

First Nat'l Bank of Abilene vs F. H. Boardman: Judgment set aside and motion to dissolve attachment set for March 14.

John Armstrong vs D. W. Nail: Settled at cost of executive creditor. W. A. Tudor.

H. Southworth vs D. Heston: Judgment for $90.

WEDNESDAY.
F. P. McDivitt vs Edwin Hilton: Verdict and judgment for defendant. M. E. Fink vs J. H. Fink: Divorce granted.

Lamb vs Lamb: Under advisement. Jas Culbertson, G. W. Hurd and C. S. Crawford were appointed as a committee to examine E. Grosser, candidate for admission to the bar.

That we have found and presented seven true bills; that we have carefully examined the county jail and find it in good condition and the prisoners confined therein well cared for in every respect, and that the board of county commissioners and other officers, one and all, are vigilant and careful in looking after the affairs of the county and the interest of the tax payers; and before being discharged we desire to express our thanks to the Hon. M. B. Nicholson, judge, for the courteous and affable treatment shown toward the grand jury; also we wish to thank the Hon. C. C. Biting, Jr., county attorney, for his vigilance shown and able assistance given to the grand jury in his arduous duties.

EXCHANGING THOUGHTS.

Dickinson County Teachers Hold a Largely Attended Meeting.

The last county association meeting for the year convened in the central school building Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The day was beautiful and teachers were there from all parts of the county, eighty-two being present.

The meeting was called to order by S. M. Cook, president, and after music by the junior class of the high school Rev. Zimmerman led in prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were then read by Miss Baker, the secretary.

Mr. Swisher introduced the subject, "Literature as an Aid in Teaching English Grammar." Although Mr. Swisher's talk was extemporaneous it was to the point. Mr. Landis did not wish to discuss the topic further than to know if in literature we do not have to depend on grammar for the thought. Mr. Swisher thought we must get the thought from the literature and not from the rules of grammar. The subject was discussed further by S. M. Cook, J. H. Engle, Miss Grace Cooke, W. A. Stacy, W. M. Campbell, O. L. Bates, C. G. Bear, L. Humbarger and others.

D. F. Shirk gave a very excellent talk on the subject of "How My Knowledge of the Sensibilities and Will Aid Me in Teaching." He thought that in order for them to aid at all, the teacher should have a knowledge of the same. After giving various definitions he concluded that we should encourage proper emotions in the child, but should not encourage those emotions to excess. If a boy has a special liking for arithmetic we should cultivate that, but not to the detriment of other things. The child should study other things although he may dislike them.

The paper was discussed by W. H. Wagner, who said that every man is a walking psychology. Mr. Swisher said that nearly all teachers govern by laws of psychology, even though they may not have learned these laws from some book.

"Civil Service vs. To the Victor Belong the Spoils," was the subject of a paper by D. G. Rudy. Reform seems to be the spirit of the age. If a man has not taken part in some one of the many reforms now before the people he is certainly a very peculiar being or else he has been attending strictly to his own business. The paper was an excellent one. Mr. Rudy very emphatically declared that he believed that to the victor belong the spoils. The paper was discussed by Messrs. Floyd Troxel and Emil Grosser.

Miss Lizzie Wooster gave a talk on kindergarten work, illustrating her methods by a model class.

D. A. Holmes read a paper on "What Shall a Teacher Read?" He deplored the fact that too many persons spend their time in reading such things as do not tend to elevate them. He divided the teacher's reading into general, specific and professional. He believed that a little less fiction and more Bible would make us better men and women.

After some miscellaneous business the critic, J. H. Engle, gave a very interesting and timely report.

A telegram was received from Messrs MacDonald and Larimer, of Topeka, stating that they had missed the train and would be unable to be present.

In response to a telegram sent to Mr. MacDonald later in the day inviting him to attend the meeting at Chapman next Saturday, he replied saying that he would be there and perhaps Mr. Larimer also.

On the whole the meeting was a very interesting and profitable one. The subjects were ably handled and the music excellent.

Henry Green, a well-known horseman and farmer of Industry, was doing business in the city Monday.

A. J. Huff, a prominent citizen of Industry, was in the city in the interest of the new creamery association to be organized at Industry.

Headquarters for Seed Potatoes. Farmers, the place to get your Early Ohio and Early Rose seed potatoes and garden and field seeds in bulk is at the Parlor grocery, next door to post-office.

It will soon be in order to work out the poll tax or pay your little $5.00 assessment.

Sure Enough this Time.
At the Catholic church in Solomon, on the 27th of February, Mr. Joseph Smith and Miss Christina Eisenhauer were married by Rev. Father Hayden. The happy couple are well known and highly esteemed in social circles in North Dickinson. A select company of friends witnessed the ceremony, and in the evening about 150 invited guests assembled at the residence of the bride's parents, where all were royally entertained. After a night of dancing and other amusements, the company separated with many good wishes for the bridal pair.
FELIX.

Special to Farmers.
Finley & Brewer want every pound of butter that is brought into Abilene. They have large outside orders for it and are prepared to pay top prices. Bring them your butter. Eggs and farm produce wanted every day and all the time. This firm is headquarters of the county for potatoes for seed. They will be at the front again this spring. Their stock of groceries is unrivaled for quality and low prices. Call and see them, and don't forget to bring your produce to their store on North Broadway.

Industry Creamists.
The farmers of Industry and vicinity have formed an organization for the construction and operation of a creamery. They recognize the benefits of such institutions and will without a doubt make a distinguished success of their undertaking. Not only will it give the farmers a better market for their dairy products, but it will tend to encourage the raising of stock and diversified farming.

The officers of the company, which is called the Industry Creamery Association, are: President, Frank Munro; vice-president, A. T. Munro; secretary, D. W. Engle; directors, Frank Monroe, H. D. Ingham, Henry Kirby, D. W. Engle, A. J. Huff.

The Small Pox Cases.
Last Saturday the county commissioners employed James Adams to take care of the small pox cases that exist in the family of Erich Anderson, near Alida, this county. Mr. Adams has been afflicted with the disease himself, and has had large experience both in the army and in the hospital in treating cases and will undoubtedly give the best of satisfaction in this particular case. The utmost precaution will be taken to prevent the spread of this loathsome disease. Mr. Adams left for the home of the afflicted, and will use his utmost skill to relieve the family from suffering.

A daughter of Mr. Anderson has been working in Junction City for a family afflicted with small pox, and brought the disease home with her. Four of the family are now down and are being properly cared for.

Small Pox Spreading.

County Clerk Bert received a letter Tuesday from Dr. Hays, of Junction City, saying that the cases of small pox at Alida are much worse. There are now in the Anderson family seven cases, all but one of the children being ill. The father and oldest daughter are dangerously afflicted and are scarcely likely to live. The daughter was the one who carried the disease to the home, she having contracted it in Junction City where she was working.

The family is in destitute circumstances and needs help. If the charitable people of Abilene wish to do a good deed, here is a field for them in sending the sufferers clothing and food. The county commissioners sent out twelve pairs of blankets last night and will send other necessities today.

The utmost care should be taken that the dreaded disease does not enter Abilene. The existence of several cases at Junction, though all are getting along well, makes the danger greater. Let every precaution be taken for prevention is always far cheaper than cure.

Township Assessors

The following are the complete proceedings of the board of township and city assessors which completed its annual session last evening:

The meeting was called to order at 10 a. m. by W. H. Ferguson, of Hope township. On motion J. B. Warfield was elected chairman and H. C. Lower secretary. Meeting adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock p. m. The members were called to order promptly on time in the afternoon by the chairman. First in order was roll call. All assessors of the county were present except W. W. Day, of Ridge. On motion it was decided to assess all property at one-third its actual value. On motion it was agreed to make a minute on the statement of the different ages of horses, cattle, etc. On motion it was agreed to require every person whose duty it is to list property on his own behalf or of others to take an oath as to the truth of his statement. On motion a vote of thanks was extended to County Clerk Bert for his courteous treatment, also to the county commissioners for their presence and advice at the meeting. An adjournment was then taken.

P. Van Dyke is quite ill at his rooms in the Austin house.

Miss Sadie Hatfield, of Hope, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Waring.

The Free Methodist church had seven accessions to its membership Monday evening as a result of the protracted meetings that have been held during the past few weeks.
